1. Sri.N.A.Aiengar, Senior Surgeon, Chief Medical Officer, Insurance Department and Railways and Ex-Officio Inspector-General of Prisons is being permitted to retire from service with effect from 31st March 1951.

2. The post of the Honorary Surgeon and Director of Hospitals in Bangalore has been ordered to be abolished with effect from 1st June 1951, i.e., with effect from the date on which the present term of Sri.T.Seshachalam as Honorary Surgeon and Director of Hospitals, Principal, Medical School expires.

3. In this connection the following points arise for consideration ~~are~~:

- (i) selection of a successor to Sri.N.A.Aiengar;
- (ii) the question of the administration of the hospitals at present in charge of Director of Hospitals on the abolition of the post of Director of Hospitals;
- (iii) the Officer to be posted as Principal, Medical School (A suggestion by the Government of India to convert the Medical School into a College is under consideration in the ^{Medical} Medical/Education Branches separately).

4. Prior to 1941 there was only one head of a Department in the Medical Department viz., the Senior Surgeon. Subsequently a separate post of Chief Medical Officer, Womens Hospitals, was created, continued for some years and abolished in 1948. The Chief Medical Officer, Womens Hospitals, was placed in independent charge of Womens Hospitals in the State and the Senior Surgeon was in charge of only the Men's Hospitals.

5. In January 1947 all the Tuberculosis Hospitals in the State were taken away from the control of the Senior Surgeon and transferred to the control of another Officer designated Director of Tuberculosis. Dr.B.Jayram held this appointment for the first time ^{in March 1949} and when he was appointed Senior Surgeon, ^{when} (This post was abolished) out a portion of the Department and making that portion into what is practically another Department and appointing a Head to it, merely increases the expenditure on Salaries, establishment, I. A and contingencies. The various experiments tried in this direction have been more or less on the personal considerations of the officers. From the financial point of view also a single head for the whole Dept would be preferable. The question may perhaps be considered at a Council meeting.

7. Senior Officers next in rank to Sri B.A. Iyengar in the Men's and Women's cadres respectively are:

1. Sri V. Lakshmana Rao Padke - Pay Rs. 800 (Till to superannuate on 15th September 1951);
2. Mr. Perched S. Captain - Pay Rs. 1000/- (due to superannuate in June 1952).

11. Financial Secretary who was also in charge of the duties of the Chief Secretary has noted as follows on the file:-

The Senior Surgeon is the Head of the Department and in general charge of it, carving out a portion of the Department and making that portion into what is practically another Department and appointing a Head to it, merely increases the expenditure on salaries, establishment, G.A. and contingencies. The various experiments tried in this direction have been more or less on the personal considerations of the officers. From the financial point of view also a single head for the whole Department would be preferable. The question may perhaps be considered at a Council Meeting.

The Chief Minister has ordered that the subject may be considered at a Meeting of the Council.
